During the day we will be singing from London Gallery Quire's book 'Your Voices Raise'. If you wish to join our day of West Gallery Music making, we would ask that you to purchase a copy of our book at a cost of £8 to be bought on the day or £10 to include postage and packing to be delivered before 17th September. This book will be used on all future LGQ social and church crawl events. It contains 56 favourite items from the repertoire of the quire.

We will be using the Docklands Light Railway between Shadwell and Westferry stations, should you not have an Oyster Card you will need to purchase a day travel card. We will also be walking between some of the church so suitable footwear and clothing should be worn. To enable a donation to be made to each church I will be handing round a hat for contributions at the beginning of the day.
